

5 digital transformation predictions for 2018 and beyond.

1

Traditional industries will be hit hard by emerging technology in 2018.

2

Robotic Process Automation (RPA) will dramatically transform knowledge tasks. 100 million global knowledge workers could be impacted by RPA by 2025.

Citation: <https://assets.kpmg.com/content/dam/kpmg/pdf/2016/04/employees-an-endangered-species.pdf>

3

With cloud computing expected to surge from $67B to $162B by 2020, the gap between startup and large companies will shrink faster than ever.

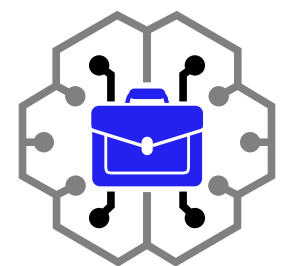

Citation: <https://www.forbes.com/sites/louiscolombus/2017/04/29/roundup-of-cloud-computing-forecasts-2017/#44a2bbba31e8>

4

In 2020, AI will become a net job creator, creating 2.3M jobs while only eliminating 1.8M jobs. Net job creation will vary by industry, with manufacturing experiencing the biggest impact.

Citation: <https://www.gartner.com/smarterwithgartner/gartner-top-strategic-predictions-for-2018-and-beyond>

5

Global spending on digital transformation technology will surge to $1.2 trillion this year, and hit 2 trillion by 2020, according to IDC.

Citation: <https://www.idc.com/getdoc.jsp?containerId=prUS42327517>

