Human resources and crisis management teams, already strained by the COVID-19 pandemic, must now plan how to return the workforce safely to the workplace and be compliant with OMB Memorandum M-21-15: COVID-19 Safe Federal Workplace: Agency Model Safety Principles.

These transitions will be complex. To ensure your federal employees and contractors are productive and safe in the workplace, individual employee health and risk screenings will be vital. Whether a role can be executed remotely, on site, and taking into consideration evolving CDC policies, regulations, and vaccination thresholds, Appian Workforce Safety can quickly pivot to these evolving needs.

The Appian Cloud offers increased the security accreditations required for your agency deployment, including:
